THREE WERE HURT

ONLY TWO WERE SERIOUSLY INJURED BY BOILER EXPLOSION.

BOTH HAD BROKEN BONES

Dr. James Loffer and A. E. Freeman of Graham Were Also Scalded in Accident at Murphy Farm.

In an accident Friday noon at the Murphy farm, six miles northwest of Maryville, when the boiler on a threshing machine engine blew up, Dr. James Loffer, veterinary surgeon of Graham, and A. E. Freeman, also of that town, who was engineer of the machine, were both seriously hurt. Loffer was badly scalded and burned and received also a broken leg, while Freeman's injuries consisted of a broken arm and a broken foot. Both injured men were brought to St. Francis hospital, where they were attended, and the physicians state that they are seriously hurt, but some chance for both of them to recover. Sam Hockman of Graham, who was with the machine outfit, was also hurt, his injuries consisting of burns, but they are not serious.

The threshing machine is owned by Fin Kaufman of Graham, and arrived at the Murphy farm about noon Friday, where they were going to thresh. They were all ready when the explosion occurred, which was caused by a new steam gauge failing to register. Too much steam was forced into the boiler and the explosion followed. The boiler was blown for a distance of seventy-five yards over a fence and the drive wheel of the engine was thrown a distance of about 400 feet.

Jesse Kaufman, a son of the owner of the machine, who was standing near the machine, was blown a distance of about seventy-five yards with the boiler, but outside of a few bruises and injuries was not seriously hurt.

Dr. Loffer had just arrived at the time of the accident in his car from Graham. He was accompanied by Fin Kaufman, the owner of the machine, who escaped from being injured.

Dr. Leslie Dean and Dr. K. C. Cummins attended the injured parties Friday and dressed their wounds. Loffer and Freeman suffered intense pain during the afternoon and night Friday, but are some better at this writing Saturday.

WHICH ARE THEY?

It would seem that a neat little drama of the Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde order is about to be staged by the Republican leaders in Nodaway county. Perhaps the players have not all been taken in on the deal as yet, but they can get their "cue" when the scenery is all arranged and the time rolls around for the big rehearsal.

The play is to be without headlines or flaming posters, and therein it is unique, but it promises an interesting cast nevertheless. At the risk of mixing metaphors, it may be said that the purpose of the play is to show how little fish may swallow a big one.

We are all familiar with the fact that the Republican party has nominated William H. Taft for the presidency. We likewise know that the new progressive party has nominated Theodore Roosevelt for the same office. At the recent primary elections the Republicans were urged to come out along with the Democrats and nominate a county ticket. The new bull moose leaders issued a call to their followers to stay at home and ignore the election because they expected to put out a ticket in opposition to both the others at a later date.

Two years ago 3,138 Republicans voted in the general election in Nodaway county, but this year only 1,111 Republicans took part in the nomination of their county ticket. This would seem to show not only that the followers of the Roosevelt party obeyed the warning of its local leaders and remained away from the polls, but that this party now numbers in comparison with the regular Republican party in Nodaway county in the ratio of almost two to one.

Certain men ran in this primary, not for nomination by the Roosevelt party, but for nomination by the old Republican or Taft party. The nomination was given them. They were presumed to be Taft men or they would not have been asking for a nomination in his party. They have never declared otherwise, so far as known, or they very likely would not have been given the nominations they sought. The Roosevelt men stayed out of the game and expected to nominate their own candidates.

Now it has occurred to these nominees of the Taft party that it would be a good thing to secure also the nomination of the Roosevelt party and thus prevent any of the Roosevelt men from getting the offices or of even running for them. They are willing to play the double role if they can keep the other fellows off the track. They can be Taft men with the Taftites and Roosevelt men with the Rooseveltites.

They cannot be blamed for wanting to pull off such a daring stunt, but it will be interesting to see if they can make it go. The Roosevelt party in this county is big enough to furnish all the candidates it needs out of its own ranks, and the proposed arrangement looks like putting the big pot in the little one. The scheme is all the more daring because the schemers don't propose to give the Roosevelt men anything. They propose just simply to take the best offices, and they don't propose to even vote for Roosevelt himself.

It cannot be urged in their behalf that they are Roosevelt men themselves, for that would be equivalent to admitting that they had secured their first nomination under false pretenses. The Taft men would never have nominated them had they not known where they stood. And what would the Taft men think if their nominees should desert them now?

Besides, two parties cannot unite on a ticket unless they know where each man stands. When two parties "fuse" on a ticket the stronger party usually takes what it wants and offers the balance to the weaker bunch. In this proposition, however, it would seem that the "regulars" propose to furnish the whole show and take the box receipts and let the "progressives" furnish the audience. As the first meeting of the Republican committee was in "executive session," it will be interesting to note developments as the game proceeds.

TO TALK FOR TEDDY

SHEPHERD LEFFLER WILL MAKE CAMPAIGN SPEECHES IN COUNTY.

WILL DECIDE ON TICKET

Progressives Not Yet Determined as to County Ticket—Will Select Delegates to State Convention.

The progressive party committee, or those members selected at a recent convention of that party, met Friday and decided to fill out the committee, so as to have a member from each township. It was also decided to meet some time next week to prepare a call for a county convention for the purpose of selecting ten delegates to the state convention at St. Louis, to be held September 3. At the convention the delegates will also take up the matter of whether to put a party ticket in the field in this county or whether to endorse the Republican candidates. This is expected to cause a fight in the county convention, as some are opposed to endorsing any Republicans, while others would be willing to.

The party will make an active campaign over the county, speaking in every section. Shepherd Leffler of this city, who attended the Progressive national convention, has already been secured to make a campaign of the county and other speakers will be employed.

The county convention will probably be held on Saturday, August 24.

PLANNING FOR EXHIBIT.

To Be Held in Connection With Teachers' Conference to Be Held August 29 and 30.

W. M. Oakerson, county superintendent of schools, has sent out a letter to the teachers about the teachers' conference to be held in Maryville, August 29 and 30, in regard to the joint teachers' meeting to be held here in November in connection with the corn growing and domestic science contests. The letter is as follows:

"I am planning for a joint association of six counties in November and desire to make that the best educational meeting that has ever been held in this county. I have engaged some of the best talent in the United States. I also desire the teachers to give the best educational exhibit at that meeting that we have yet had. These exhibits have proven very helpful in the past, and I am sure will do so again. Begin to plan for the exhibit at once. If you have some good work from last year save it for the exhibit. The articles for this exhibit may consist of any school work, such as maps, drawings, sample specimens of penmansnip, compositions, note books, examination papers, map moulding, paper cutting, booklets of various kinds, rafia and reed work, any kind of manual training work, etc.

"Each teacher is requested to prepare not less than four nor more than twelve articles for the exhibit.

"If there are any boys in your district that are enrolled in the corn growing contest or girls that are enrolled in the domestic science contest I hope that you will urge them to have their exhibits prepared for the contest, which will be held November 7-9."

Judge Frank P. Sadler of Chicago continued to uphold the excellence of the Chautauqua talent when he spoke to another big audience Friday afternoon on "The Criminal in the Making." Judge Sadler is the judge of the municipal court of Chicago, and he speaks from experience with a large number of cases.

The things to which Judge Sadler attributed the making of our criminals are lack of moral training, environment, lack of employment, liquor, and the exploitation of crime in the newspapers.

The climax of criminality comes between the ages of 18 and 24 among men, and at the age of 26 among women; so when we see that 80 per cent of our criminals are under 30 and 50 per cent under 25 years of age, it is evident that we make our criminals at home and do not import them among the immigrants who are, for the most part, older men and women.

Our criminals are made from the boys and girls who come to the city from the country and smaller towns. Their first step upon reaching the city is often an unconscious step toward ruin. They take lodging in the downtown rooming houses in order to save car fare, and thus place themselves in contact with crime, for the downtown lodging houses are nothing more than the go-between from the respectable world to the disorderly saloons and under world in general.

Judge Sadler said that in the first ward of Chicago there was only one place where clean amusement could be had free. That place was the Y. M. C. A. On the other hand, in that same ward there were 722 saloons and seventeen churches, the latter closed all through the week except for a few hours on Sunday. So the boys and girls are forced to go to the saloons for their amusement. There they associate with pickpockets, burglars, thugs, and, worst of all, the fallen women.

The steps by which the boys fall into crime were given by the judge as: First, gambling; second, living with fallen women; next, becoming a cadet; and then the criminal act will come at any time.

"It is the young men who are murderers," said Judge Sadler, "you rarely find an old offender using violence.

"The girls who go to the city to work in the department stores find that they cannot support themselves on six, eight and ten dollars a week, so it does not take much persuasion to get them to do nothing but sit at the tables in saloons in order to draw trade. The girls are paid from 5 to 20 per cent on the amount of trade they draw. After this step is taken they rapidly descend to the depths of shame and crime."

Judge Sadler said that it was next to impossible to close these places of crime, for the business and professional men would rather be surrounded by the evil than to run any risk of personal loss through decrease of business or boycott. The best remedy lies with the parents of this country.

"They are the architects of the child's destiny," said Judge Sadler, "and they teach the child a desire for good libraries, an appreciation of art, and a love for music, so that it will be above the sordid pleasures of the under world. Our country can stand a wreck of political parties, it can stand a wreck of the tariff schedule, but it cannot stand the wreck of the characters of our children."

It is seldom that a Chautauqua speaker can be secured who will completely satisfy an audience. Some will be satisfied with a part of what he says, others satisfied with the greater part of his speech and rejecting a small portion.

Friday night Dr. George Stuart of Tennessee, noted Southern preacher and Chautauqua lecturer of national reputation for many years, appeared at a Maryville Chautauqua for the first time. There were in the audience quite a number of people who had heard him at other Chautauquas and followed him here, and all Maryville people who heard him last night know why those people followed Dr. Stuart to the Maryville Chautauqua.

His subject was "Lop-Sided People." After his introduction by Dr. J. S. Ford of the First M. E. church, which was bright and brief, the lecturer said:

"Well, you're all here, so I'll begin."

Started them to laughing the first thing, and he kept it up all through his great lecture. But there was not something to laugh at all the time, for he said many things that brought tears of happiness and sympathy, and they came as spontaneously as the laughter came. Then he came out fine and strong on questions that vitally concern us as individuals and concern us as a nation, and there was as good response to what he advocated from what we call a moral standpoint as there was to his humor that provoked side-racking laughter from the soberest.

He said he was not there to talk of people who were crippled and maimed physically, but of those who have devoted themselves to their business, that they tread a beaten path, whether on the farm or in the city, and they are so mentally lop-sided by it that they get no pleasure out of life and make all miserable about them.

Dr. Stuart is an advocate of the religion that God made, the God who made a beautiful world and all the happy, fun-loving, sunshine-scattering people in it. He believes God laughed when He made the monkey and the parrot, because He could not help but know the possibilities of those creatures, and believes that God laughs and is joyous over the funny things He sees and hears His children do and say, and that He delights in seeing His creatures begin the new day with the rising of each sun. He drew a picture of life on a farm at that time that was bewitching, that one could smell the clover in the meadows and hear the lambs bleating as they played.

He believes the farm is the great place to rear great men. But the whole country has gotten the specialty craze so strong that we are lop-sided; that we have few rounded out people in the whole nation, because we are seeking material prosperity alone. Instead of having 1,000 men big enough to aspire to the presidency of the United States, we have not enough to count on our fingers.

"Better have log cabin homes from which great sons and daughters walk, who are thinkers and can laugh and weep at the proper time, than great beautiful residences from which little dudes and dudines go to and from like ants."

He talked to men and women alike of their foibies, but especially to women on the present mode of dress affected by many.

He is a firm believer in genuine courtship, such as was known twenty-five years ago, that took two years to consummate in the marriage that resulted in two weeks after the engagement, a marriage whose honeymoon lasted as long as life lasted. Not like the inspired courtship of the present day, that takes about two weeks to end in a marriage ceremony and is forgotten in a year or two in a divorce court.

A lecture was given this Saturday morning by Dr. Campbell of Kansas City, being a "Tooth Talk," especially for children.

A large crowd was in attendance Saturday afternoon and the program consisted of a concert by Forbes' Pipe band and a lecture by Farmer Will B. Otwell.

Camp Notes.

The concerts by the Maryville band Friday were just so fine that all Maryville people were more than proud of them, and all the out-of-town people said, "You don't need outside bands to give you good music. You have it with you all the time." And it's true. Director Lawler and his boys are working hard and they compare favorably with any like music we have had from a distance at our Chautauquas. Hurrah for the Maryville band! The way they played Friday night

BEGGAR ARRESTED.

Got an Overdose of Booze and Disturbed the Peace of a Saloon.

The tramp that was playing a banjo in front of the postoffice this morning, where he had stationed himself to receive the nickels and dimes of the postoffice callers, was arrested Saturday noon for disturbing the peace of the Heller saloon.

The tramp had secured between $3 and $4, and about noon went to the Kane saloon and bought three or four drinks, that must have put him in a pretty good humor, for he left the Kane saloon and went on down to Heller's, just back of Kane's place, and went in and threw on the counter all the nickels and dimes he had left and ordered drinks for the crowd, about twenty men standing in there.

Mr. Heller asked him if he did not get his money begging in front of the postoffice Saturday morning. The tramp said that he did, when Mr. Heller told him he would not take it.

The tramp said, "My money didn't cost me anything and I'm going to spend it the way I want to. Everybody come and have a drink."

But the drinks did not come, and he became furious and abused everybody he could think of and went to see a lawyer and began to play on the streets again.

Chief of Police Moberly, who had taken considerable abuse from the fellow, told him he thought he had given enough music, but got a cussing in return, and later arrested the man as he grew noisier and took him to jail, having to drag him, as the fellow would not walk, and fought every step of the way.

The tramp was run out of Shenandoah last night.

But there's no need to feel like that, as T. D. Peebles, Henry, Tenn., proved. "Six bottles of Electric Bitters," he writes, "did more to give men new strength and good appetite than all other stomach remedies I used." So they help everybody. It's folly to suffer when this great remedy will help you from the first dose. Try it. Only 50 cents at the Orear-Henry Drug Co.

GOVERNMENT SUES FILM MONOPOLY

Dissolution of Trust is Asked Under Sherman Law.

TEN BIG CONCERNS INVOLVED

Suit is Regarded by Department of Justice as Most Important Action Ever Brought Under Anti-Trust Law.

Philadelphia, Aug. 17.—The federal government attacked the motion picture trust in a civil suit filed here for the dissolution of the Motion Picture Patents company and the General Film company. Ten big film concerns and 12 individual officers and directors are accused of combining to monopolize the business, even to the extent of increasing or decreasing the number of motion picture theaters, in which they have no proprietary interest.

The government charges that unreasonable and oppressive restraints and conditions have been arbitrarily imposed on the manufacture and leasing of films and machines, depriving the public of the advantage of competition, especially the competition of foreign films, the importation of which is alleged to be restricted.

Controls 80 Per Cent.

The government's petition says between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 feet of pictures are printed each week by manufacturers and distributed to thousands of exhibitors all over the United States, involving an investment greatly in excess of $100,000,000 in the different branches of the business.

The defendants control, it is alleged, from 70 to 80 per cent of the film business, furnishing approximately 7,000 exhibitors.

Must Use Trust Films.

The Motion Picture Patents company, organized in New Jersey in September, 1908, is the holding company of all the motion picture patents of the defendants.

Not one of the thousands of exhibitors throughout the United States, it is charged, can obtain a motion picture manufactured by anyone of the ten defendant manufacturers unless he has received a license from the patents company which obligates him to use the films of the alleged combination exclusively.

Test of Corporation Rights.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The moving picture anti-trust suit just filed, is regarded by the department of justice as one of its most important moves under the Sherman law. It squarely asks for a judicial determination of the relation of that statute to the patent laws. The suit will test the right of corporations and individuals to join their respective patent monopolies into one big monopoly through combination and agreements.

AGAIN, THE "TRUSTED EMPLOYE"

Confidential Clerk of Cudahy Packing Company Arrested for Issuing Fraudulent Checks.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—A. J. Hobson, for ten years a confidential clerk of the Cudahy packing company, was arrested on a warrant sworn to by W. J. Quinn, assistant general manager of the company, charging Hobson with fraud.

Hobson was employed in the general offices, and it was part of his duties to make out vouchers for pay checks due to agents located outside of Chicago.

According to officials of the company he conspired with men outside the city to obtain checks on false vouchers.

Hobson is said to have admitted having obtained several hundred dollars, when he was seen at the South Clark street police station, where he is being held.

Busy Forger at Springfield.

Springfield, Mo., Aug. 17.—Springfield business men, within the past few days, have cashed numerous pieces of worthless paper for as much as $125. At the Frisco ticket office one bogus draft for $125 was cashed. A grocer cashed another for $50 which was refused at the bank. One drawn through a St. Louis bank was printed upon a form used by the bank of Foss, Ok., and bore the signature of J. W. Cantelon, cashier. The police are seeking a man who is said to have disposed of each piece of the worthless paper.

May Impeach Penrose.

Pittsburg, Aug. 17.—Boise Penrose, United States senator from Pennsylvania is face to face with impeachment on the charge of accepting Standard Oil money to influence legislation in congress. The charges are based on the recent publication in a magazine of a series of letters to Penrose from John D. Archbold which indicated that $25,600 was paid to Penrose.

Dynamite Trials in October.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 17.—United States Senator John W. Kern will be one of the attorneys for the 51 defendants, accused of complicity in the alleged nation-wide dynamite conspiracy. The trials are scheduled to begin in the federal court October 1.

RICH GOLD VEIN DISCOVERED

VAST ORE LEDGE EXPOSED BY CLOUDBURST.

Colorado is Excited Over Prospective Camp Which May Rival Cripple Creek.

Denver, Col. Aug. 17.—Gold deposits of vast extent, lying almost at the grass roots in a vein four feet wide the ore assaying from $700 to $2,250 a ton, were uncovered by a cloudburst in northern New Mexico, within 20 miles of the southern boundary of Colorado. Experienced mining men of the early days in Cripple Creek declare that the discovery assures the upbuilding of a mining camp as great as Cripple Creek.

Fifteen hundred men already have arrived at the new gold field and staked out ground for miles. The original discoverers endeavored to preserve secrecy concerning their finds, but were unable to do so and each train to the nearest railroad station carries an increasing number of prospectors.

The new camp lies 50 miles from Blanca Costilla county, Colorado, on La Tir peak.

The news of the gold discovery was brought to Denver by A. M. Kearns, who has land interests in Toas county and had been in that region on land business. He says:

"The gold was found by three or four Alamosa men who had gone there to fish. A few days before they went into that country there was a big cloudburst and when they reached La Tir peak they found a ledge exposed for many feet that glistened with gold. They were old mining men and took samples across a four-foot vein and the assays showed $2,250 to the ton. They have gone down 26 feet making assays as they went, and the lowest return has been $700 to the ton across the entire four-foot vein."

Chickasha, Ok., Aug. 17.—Farmers and fruit growers of this section are offering fine Elberta peaches at 15 cents a bushel. The crop is just now ripening and no market can be found for them.

A number of farmers are feeding the peaches to their hogs rather than haul them to town at the low price they are bringing. The peach crop will be the largest in years.

ARMY BILL BACK FOR CONFERENCE

Appropriation Measure, Important to Soldiers, Again Delayed.

SENATE SUSTAINS TAFT VETOES

Motion to Override President on Metal Bill Fails to Get Necessary Majority—Vote Was 32 to 38.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The army appropriation bill so anxiously watched by the soldiers of the entire country and which has passed the house twice after such a bitter fight was waged, was sent once more to conference by the house. The managers for the house, appointed by Speaker Clark were Representatives Hay, Slayden and Fornes.

The chief differences between the two branches of congress are the provisions abolishing a large number of army posts, the reduction of the cavalry force of the army and the extension of the term of enlistment from three to five years.

Fur Treaty Goes Same Way.

The bill putting into effect the international treaty with regard to the preservation of the fur seals, also was sent to conference. Representative Sulzer of New York, Democrat, moved a disagreement to all of the senate amendments and Speaker Clark named him, Representatives Flood and McKinley as the house conferees.

Senate Upholds President.

The senate voted to sustain vetoes of the president on the wool and metal tariff revision bills. On the metal bill the motion to override the president did not even obtain a majority. On neither measure did the vote approach the necessary two-thirds.

Senator Simmons called up the metal bill, which was first disposed of. Without a debate a roll call vote was taken and 32 senators voted in favor of overriding the veto. Thirty eight voted against passage.

Fight Over Wool Bill.

Senator La Follette made the motion to repass the wool bill. He asserted that the bill was a protective tariff measure and was framed according to the tariff board's report on the wool industry. He analyzed the report of the tariff board and compared it with the bill. Senator La Follette asserted that the failure of the president to accept the "judgment of congress," was a usurpation of power.

Senator Heyburn answered Mr. La Follette, and denounced the bill as a Democratic measure. When the vote finally was taken 49 senators voted in favor of passing the bill and 36 against it. The following Republicans voted with the Democrats to override the wool veto: Senators Bristow, Clapp, Crawford, La Follette, Poindexter and Works.

Superintendent Fairchild Starts Campaign for Passage of Page Bill.

Topeka, Aug. 17.—E. T. Fairchild, state superintendent of public instruction has started a campaign to line up the Kansas congressmen for the Page bill to give assistance to Kansas trade and agricultural schools.

The government aid would make possible an increase in the facilities for handling these subjects in the Kansas schools.

New York, Aug. 17.—Gov. Dix appointed Justice John W. Goff of the state supreme court to hear the Rosenthal murder cases in extraordinary session beginning September 3.

They probably will be returned early next week after the testimony of Sam Schepps has been heard.

AS THE BURGLAR VIEWS IT

National Board of Control Favored by Mr. Velvet Pillowfeet, So Well and Widely Known.

Mr. Velvet Pillowfeet, the widely known burglar, returned from Europe yesterday on the Pelumphic. When asked about the business situation he said:

"There is no need for worry over the burglar business. In spite of the disturbance of recent months, underlying conditions are sound and resources are plentiful. And yet, although I am thoroughly optimistic, I want to say that no noticeable revival of burglary can be looked for at once. So long as the authorities continue their meddling, and so long as the people are willing to listen to inflammatory agitators, our soldiest burglars will not undertake new commitments. The public mind has been stirred up until they think burglars are much worse than they really are. It is actually coming to the point in this country where a man who is good to his family cannot turn a dishonest penny without having to undergo annoying investigations by congress and the police and muckrakers.

"I do not deny, of course, that burglary should be regulated, nor do I object to a modicum of government control, which might even go so far as to limit the amount which a duly licensed burglar might make at any one haul, but I do think that burglary should be taken out of politics. For this purpose I favor the creation of a national burglary board, to be appointed by the president and composed of leading respectable burglars."

Fooling the Kaiser.

A long smile and a quiet chuckle are reported from Berlin consequent on a confidence game of which the emperor William II. was the victim during his recent sojourn at the Greek island of Corfu. It seems that the authorities of the island, advised of the coming of the kaiser, wished to give him an agreeable surprise. Knowing the interest he took in archaeological excavation, they decided to do some digging under his very eyes.

Hardly had he debarked when announcement was made that a number of antique statues had been uncovered. He wished at once to see them and exhibited great satisfaction when under his eyes there was exhumed a number of marbles of great beauty. He had these transported to a neighboring hall and declared that he would send them to the museum at Berlin.

It soon came out, however, that these works were apochryphal. The authorities had bought them of dealers in fake antiquities. It is said that the kaiser was furious when the fraud was made known to him. Had it happened in Germany the tricksters might be punished for lese majesty.

Miss Anna Stapler left Saturday for a two weeks' visit in Chicago with Miss Katherine Qlinlan.

Mrs. J. C. Simpson and daughter of Pickering spent Friday and Saturday in Maryville.

NOW IS TIME FOR REWARD

Too Long Have They Been Fooled by False Gods—Rallying to Democracy's Banners.

The reasons why those engaged in agricultural pursuits should support Governor Woodrow Wilson for president are strongly set forth by Senator Obadiah Gardner of Maine in an address to farmers.

Senator Gardner is a practical farmer, one who farms his own farm, and he is probably in closer touch and sympathy with country life and its environments than any other man in public life.

For twenty-five years Senator Gardner has been actively engaged in the National Grange and for ten years he was the master of the State Grange of Maine. A few years ago he came within a close margin of being elected governor of the Pine Tree State.

A little less than a year ago, when Senator Frye, who had represented Maine in the senate for thirty years, died, Governor Plaisted honored Mr. Gardner, and recognized the agricultural interests of the country by appointing him to the United States senate, where he has made a most creditable record, devoting particular attention to the welfare of the great rural population of the country. He is now a candidate for re-election and will undoubtedly be successful.

In his address, Senator Gardner says:

To the Farmers of the United States, Greeting:

Being one of you and for the greater part of my life having been engaged in the practical every-day duties of my own farm; having been for 25 years past officially at work through boards of agriculture and the National and State Granges; having served four years as second officer of the National Grange and as master of the Maine State Grange ten years, during which time the order in Maine added 8,345 members and attained a power and influence never held before, I feel I am in a position to speak from the standpoint of one who knows the farmer and his needs, and it is solely because of this that I am prompted to address you.

For years farmers have justly complained of being required to pull at the short end of the yoke because of unfair and unjust discriminations in legislation and transportation, and at the present time the farmers are charged with being the cause of the high cost of living, when, as a matter of fact, taken collectively—the amount invested in their business, the hours devoted to hard labor, and everything connected with the details of agricultural life—they are, as a whole, the poorest paid class of people in this country, while relatively the most important.

Farmers Have Been Deceived.

During all recent years farmers have been told what a great blessing has been theirs through the so-called protective tariff, and yet to find a market for their principal crops they have had to compete in the markets of the world where the price is fixed. But suddenly it is discovered that the farmer is the sole cause for the high cost of living, and what happens? The president (Mr. Taft) with a total disregard for the interests of the farmers, submits a plan to open up to competition with the farmers of the United States the products of Canada while being careful to preserve the tariff, or more correctly speaking, the tax, on all the farmer has to buy, which, as clearly as anything can, exposes the hypocrisy and "humbuggery" of the claim that the tariff is a benefit to agricultural as compared with manufactured products.

Now, the farmers of this country have an opportunity to benefit themselves that has never appeared within my recollection, as the Democratic party has been compelled by the force of public opinion to nominate a man for the presidency who is best equipped for that high office of any that have been nominated or elected since Lincoln. A man that I speak of from a personal acquaintance with and a knowledge of his fitness; a man of great natural ability, splendidly educated, not theoretically but practically, a keenness of intellect remarkable for its grasp of every condition with which he is confronted; an indomitable courage to do right; and above all a great broad tendency with and sympathy for all classes. He will make one of the most accessible presidents ever in the White House, and through whom none will be refused a hearing, however humble, nor fail to receive justice at his hands. He is truly a marvelous man and I wish every person in the United States could know him as I know him, and supplementing all these qualities is the additional one that his home is one of perfect balance.

None can meet the splendid Mrs. Wilson and her three refined, cultured daughters with their perfect naturalness, but must feel that the whole family of Woodrow Wilson was especially prepared to fill a great need in the present crisis in the history of our country, as were Washington, Jefferson, Jackson and Lincoln, and I would advise the farmers upon my reputation as a man, if you want to protect your own interests and those of your families; if you want to render the greatest possible good to your country and future generations; if you want to contribute your part to the end that popular government under God shall not perish from the earth, then see that the Hon. Woodrow Wilson is elected president.

O. GARDNER.

THE PEOPLE AND THE CURRENCY.

In dealing with the complicated and difficult question of the reform of our banking and currency laws it is plain that we ought to consult very many persons besides the bankers, not because we distrust the bankers, but because they do not necessarily comprehend the business of the country, notwithstanding they are indispensable servants of it and may do a vast deal to make it hard or easy. No mere bankers' plan will meet the requirements, no matter how honestly conceived. It should be a merchants' and farmers' plan as well, elastic in the hands of those who use it as an indispensable part of their daily business.—From Woodrow Wilson's speech accepting the Democratic nomination.

VOLUME 3. MARYVILLE, MISSOURI, SATURDAY, AUG. 17, 1912. NO. 65.

THREE WERE HURT

ONLY TWO WERE SERIOUSLY INJURED BY BOILER EXPLOSION.

BOTH HAD BROKEN BONES

Dr. James Loffer and A. E. Freeman of Graham Were Also Scalded in Accident at Murphy Farm.

In an accident Friday noon at the Murphy farm, six miles northwest of Maryville, when the boiler on a threshing machine engine blew up, Dr. James Loffer, veterinary surgeon of Graham, and A. E. Freeman, also of that town, who was engineer of the machine, were both seriously hurt. Loffer was badly scalded and burned and received also a broken leg, while Freeman's injuries consisted of a broken arm and a broken foot. Both injured men were brought to St. Francis hospital, where they were attended, and the physicians state that they are seriously hurt, but some chance for both of them to recover. Sam Hockman of Graham, who was with the machine outfit, was also hurt, his injuries consisting of burns, but they are not serious.

The threshing machine is owned by Fin Kaufman of Graham, and arrived at the Murphy farm about noon Friday, where they were going to thresh. They were all ready when the explosion occurred, which was caused by a new steam gauge failing to register. Too much steam was forced into the boiler and the explosion followed. The boiler was blown for a distance of seventy-five yards over a fence and the drive wheel of the engine was thrown a distance of about 400 feet.

Jesse Kaufman, a son of the owner of the machine, who was standing near the machine, was blown a distance of about seventy-five yards with the boiler, but outside of a few bruises and injuries was not seriously hurt.

Dr. Loffer had just arrived at the time of the accident in his car from Graham. He was accompanied by Fin Kaufman, the owner of the machine, who escaped from being injured.

Dr. Leslie Dean and Dr. K. C. Cummins attended the injured parties Friday and dressed their wounds. Loffer and Freeman suffered intense pain during the afternoon and night Friday, but are some better at this writing Saturday.

WHICH ARE THEY?

It would seem that a neat little drama of the Dr. Jekyl and Mr. Hyde order is about to be staged by the Republican leaders in Nodaway county. Perhaps the players have not all been taken in on the deal as yet, but they can get their "cue" when the scenery is all arranged and the time rolls around for the big rehearsal.

The play is to be without headlines or flaming posters, and therein it is unique, but it promises an interesting cast nevertheless. At the risk of mixing metaphors, it may be said that the purpose of the play is to show how little fish may swallow a big one.

We are all familiar with the fact that the Republican party has nominated William H. Taft for the presidency. We likewise know that the new progressive party has nominated Theodore Roosevelt for the same office. At the recent primary elections the Republicans were urged to come out along with the Democrats and nominate a county ticket. The new bull moose leaders issued a call to their followers to stay at home and ignore the election because they expected to put out a ticket in opposition to both the others at a later date.

Two years ago 3,138 Republicans voted in the general election in Nodaway county, but this year only 1,111 Republicans took part in the nomination of their county ticket. This would seem to show not only that the followers of the Roosevelt party obeyed the warning of its local leaders and remained away from the polls, but that this party now numbers in comparison with the regular Republican party in Nodaway county in the ratio of almost two to one.

Certain men ran in this primary, not for nomination by the Roosevelt party, but for nomination by the old Republican or Taft party. The nomination was given them. They were presumed to be Taft men or they would not have been asking for a nomination in his party. They have never declared otherwise, so far as known, or they very likely would not have been given the nominations they sought. The Roosevelt men stayed out of the game and expected to nominate their own candidates.

Now it has occurred to these nominees of the Taft party that it would be a good thing to secure also the nomination of the Roosevelt party and thus prevent any of the Roosevelt men from getting the offices or of even running for them. They are willing to play the double role if they can keep the other fellows off the track. They can be Taft men with the Taftites and Roosevelt men with the Rooseveltites.

They cannot be blamed for wanting to pull off such a daring stunt, but it will be interesting to see if they can make it go. The Roosevelt party in this county is big enough to furnish all the candidates it needs out of its own ranks, and the proposed arrangement looks like putting the big pot in the little one. The scheme is all the more daring because the schemers don't propose to give the Roosevelt men anything. They propose just simply to take the best offices, and they don't propose to even vote for Roosevelt himself.

It cannot be urged in their behalf that they are Roosevelt men themselves, for that would be equivalent to admitting that they had secured their first nomination under false pretenses. The Taft men would never have nominated them had they not known where they stood. And what would the Taft men think if their nominees should desert them now?

Besides, two parties cannot unite on a ticket unless they know where each man stands. When two parties "fuse" on a ticket the stronger party usually takes what it wants and offers the balance to the weaker bunch. In this proposition, however, it would seem that the "regulars" propose to furnish the whole show and take the box receipts and let the "progressives" furnish the audience. As the first meeting of the Republican committee was in "executive session," it will be interesting to note developments as the game proceeds.

TO TALK FOR TEDDY

WILL DECIDE ON TICKET

Progressives Not Yet Determined as to County Ticket—Will Select Delegates to State Convention.

The progressive party committee, or those members selected at a recent convention of that party, met Friday and decided to fill out the committee, so as to have a member from each township. It was also decided to meet some time next week to prepare a call for a county convention for the purpose of selecting ten delegates to the state convention at St. Louis, to be held September 3. At the convention the delegates will also take up the matter of whether to put a party ticket in the field in this county or whether to endorse the Republican candidates. This is expected to cause a fight in the county convention, as some are opposed to endorsing any Republicans, while others would be willing to.

The party will make an active campaign over the county, speaking in every section. Shepherd Leffler of this city, who attended the Progressive national convention, has already been secured to make a campaign of the county and other speakers will be employed.

The county convention will probably be held on Saturday, August 24.

PLANNING FOR EXHIBIT.

To Be Held in Connection With Teachers' Conference to Be Held August 29 and 30.

W. M. Oakerson, county superintendent of schools, has sent out a letter to the teachers about the teachers' conference to be held in Maryville, August 29 and 30, in regard to the joint teachers' meeting to be held here in November in connection with the corn growing and domestic science contests. The letter is as follows:

"I am planning for a joint association of six counties in November and desire to make that the best educational meeting that has ever been held in this county. I have engaged some of the best talent in the United States. I also desire the teachers to give the best educational exhibit at that meeting that we have yet had. These exhibits have proven very helpful in the past, and I am sure will do so again. Begin to plan for the exhibit at once. If you have some good work from last year save it for the exhibit. The articles for this exhibit may consist of any school work, such as maps, drawings, sample specimens of penmansnip, compositions, note books, examination papers, map moulding, paper cutting, booklets of various kinds, rafia and reed work, any kind of manual training work, etc.

"Each teacher is requested to prepare not less than four nor more than twelve articles for the exhibit.

"If there are any boys in your district that are enrolled in the corn growing contest or girls that are enrolled in the domestic science contest I hope that you will urge them to have their exhibits prepared for the contest, which will be held November 7-9."

Judge Frank P. Sadler of Chicago continued to uphold the excellence of the Chautauqua talent when he spoke to another big audience Friday afternoon on "The Criminal in the Making." Judge Sadler is the judge of the municipal court of Chicago, and he speaks from experience with a large number of cases.

The things to which Judge Sadler attributed the making of our criminals are lack of moral training, environment, lack of employment, liquor, and the exploitation of crime in the newspapers.

The climax of criminality comes between the ages of 18 and 24 among men, and at the age of 26 among women; so when we see that 80 per cent of our criminals are under 30 and 50 per cent under 25 years of age, it is evident that we make our criminals at home and do not import them among the immigrants who are, for the most part, older men and women.

Our criminals are made from the boys and girls who come to the city from the country and smaller towns. Their first step upon reaching the city is often an unconscious step toward ruin. They take lodging in the downtown rooming houses in order to save car fare, and thus place themselves in contact with crime, for the downtown lodging houses are nothing more than the go-between from the respectable world to the disorderly saloons and under world in general.

Judge Sadler said that in the first ward of Chicago there was only one place where clean amusement could be had free. That place was the Y. M. C. A. On the other hand, in that same ward there were 722 saloons and seventeen churches, the latter closed all through the week except for a few hours on Sunday. So the boys and girls are forced to go to the saloons for their amusement. There they associate with pickpockets, burglars, thugs, and, worst of all, the fallen women.

The steps by which the boys fall into crime were given by the judge as: First, gambling; second, living with fallen women; next, becoming a cadet; and then the criminal act will come at any time.

"It is the young men who are murderers," said Judge Sadler, "you rarely find an old offender using violence.

"The girls who go to the city to work in the department stores find that they cannot support themselves on six, eight and ten dollars a week, so it does not take much persuasion to get them to do nothing but sit at the tables in saloons in order to draw trade. The girls are paid from 5 to 20 per cent on the amount of trade they draw. After this step is taken they rapidly descend to the depths of shame and crime."

Judge Sadler said that it was next to impossible to close these places of crime, for the business and professional men would rather be surrounded by the evil than to run any risk of personal loss through decrease of business or boycott. The best remedy lies with the parents of this country.

"They are the architects of the child's destiny," said Judge Sadler, "and they teach the child a desire for good libraries, an appreciation of art, and a love for music, so that it will be above the sordid pleasures of the under world. Our country can stand a wreck of political parties, it can stand a wreck of the tariff schedule, but it cannot stand the wreck of the characters of our children."

It is seldom that a Chautauqua speaker can be secured who will completely satisfy an audience. Some will be satisfied with a part of what he says, others satisfied with the greater part of his speech and rejecting a small portion.

Friday night Dr. George Stuart of Tennessee, noted Southern preacher and Chautauqua lecturer of national reputation for many years, appeared at a Maryville Chautauqua for the first time. There were in the audience quite a number of people who had heard him at other Chautauquas and followed him here, and all Maryville people who heard him last night know why those people followed Dr. Stuart to the Maryville Chautauqua.

His subject was "Lop-Sided People." After his introduction by Dr. J. S. Ford of the First M. E. church, which was bright and brief, the lecturer said:

"Well, you're all here, so I'll begin."

Started them to laughing the first thing, and he kept it up all through his great lecture. But there was not something to laugh at all the time, for he said many things that brought tears of happiness and sympathy, and they came as spontaneously as the laughter came. Then he came out fine and strong on questions that vitally concern us as individuals and concern us as a nation, and there was as good response to what he advocated from what we call a moral standpoint as there was to his humor that provoked side-racking laughter from the soberest.

He said he was not there to talk of people who were crippled and maimed physically, but of those who have devoted themselves to their business, that they tread a beaten path, whether on the farm or in the city, and they are so mentally lop-sided by it that they get no pleasure out of life and make all miserable about them.

Dr. Stuart is an advocate of the religion that God made, the God who made a beautiful world and all the happy, fun-loving, sunshine-scattering people in it. He believes God laughed when He made the monkey and the parrot, because He could not help but know the possibilities of those creatures, and believes that God laughs and is joyous over the funny things He sees and hears His children do and say, and that He delights in seeing His creatures begin the new day with the rising of each sun. He drew a picture of life on a farm at that time that was bewitching, that one could smell the clover in the meadows and hear the lambs bleating as they played.

He believes the farm is the great place to rear great men. But the whole country has gotten the specialty craze so strong that we are lop-sided; that we have few rounded out people in the whole nation, because we are seeking material prosperity alone. Instead of having 1,000 men big enough to aspire to the presidency of the United States, we have not enough to count on our fingers.

"Better have log cabin homes from which great sons and daughters walk, who are thinkers and can laugh and weep at the proper time, than great beautiful residences from which little dudes and dudines go to and from like ants."

He talked to men and women alike of their foibies, but especially to women on the present mode of dress affected by many.

He is a firm believer in genuine courtship, such as was known twenty-five years ago, that took two years to consummate in the marriage that resulted in two weeks after the engagement, a marriage whose honeymoon lasted as long as life lasted. Not like the inspired courtship of the present day, that takes about two weeks to end in a marriage ceremony and is forgotten in a year or two in a divorce court.

A lecture was given this Saturday morning by Dr. Campbell of Kansas City, being a "Tooth Talk," especially for children.

A large crowd was in attendance Saturday afternoon and the program consisted of a concert by Forbes' Pipe band and a lecture by Farmer Will B. Otwell.

Camp Notes.

The concerts by the Maryville band Friday were just so fine that all Maryville people were more than proud of them, and all the out-of-town people said, "You don't need outside bands to give you good music. You have it with you all the time." And it's true. Director Lawler and his boys are working hard and they compare favorably with any like music we have had from a distance at our Chautauquas. Hurrah for the Maryville band! The way they played Friday night

ANOTHER CHAUTAUQUA

We Couldn't Do Without It and More Money Will Be Raised to Make It Bigger and Better.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Chautauqua association held after the close of the Friday afternoon program at the Chautauqua grounds, it was decided to hold a Chautauqua next year, and nine directors were elected. They are: W. M. Oakerson, Judge W. C. Ellison, Nat Sisson, J. H. Thorp and P. O. Landon of Maryville, E. C. Wolfers, Jr., of Hopkins, Ernest Wray of Myrtle Tree neighborhood, Fred Miller of Barnard, and Lewis White of White Cloud neighborhood. At a meeting of the board the members will draw lots to select three who will serve three years, three for two years and three for one year.

The directors selected Friday will be known as the executive committee, and it is planned to have a board of directors of from twenty-four to thirty-two, or one or two from each township in the county. However, this matter will be taken up by the committee.

More money is being raised and it is the intention to raise the stock from $1,500 to $2,000, the soliciting committee being out at the present time raising the money.

BEGGAR ARRESTED.

Got an Overdose of Booze and Disturbed the Peace of a Saloon.

The tramp that was playing a banjo in front of the postoffice this morning, where he had stationed himself to receive the nickels and dimes of the postoffice callers, was arrested Saturday noon for disturbing the peace of the Heller saloon.

The tramp had secured between $3 and $4, and about noon went to the Kane saloon and bought three or four drinks, that must have put him in a pretty good humor, for he left the Kane saloon and went on down to Heller's, just back of Kane's place, and went in and threw on the counter all the nickels and dimes he had left and ordered drinks for the crowd, about twenty men standing in there.

Mr. Heller asked him if he did not get his money begging in front of the postoffice Saturday morning. The tramp said that he did, when Mr. Heller told him he would not take it.

The tramp said, "My money didn't cost me anything and I'm going to spend it the way I want to. Everybody come and have a drink."

But the drinks did not come, and he became furious and abused everybody he could think of and went to see a lawyer and began to play on the streets again.

Chief of Police Moberly, who had taken considerable abuse from the fellow, told him he thought he had given enough music, but got a cussing in return, and later arrested the man as he grew noisier and took him to jail, having to drag him, as the fellow would not walk, and fought every step of the way.

The tramp was run out of Shenandoah last night.

GOVERNMENT SUES FILM MONOPOLY

Dissolution of Trust is Asked Under Sherman Law.

TEN BIG CONCERNS INVOLVED

Suit is Regarded by Department of Justice as Most Important Action Ever Brought Under Anti-Trust Law.

Philadelphia, Aug. 17.—The federal government attacked the motion picture trust in a civil suit filed here for the dissolution of the Motion Picture Patents company and the General Film company. Ten big film concerns and 12 individual officers and directors are accused of combining to monopolize the business, even to the extent of increasing or decreasing the number of motion picture theaters, in which they have no proprietary interest.

The government charges that unreasonable and oppressive restraints and conditions have been arbitrarily imposed on the manufacture and leasing of films and machines, depriving the public of the advantage of competition, especially the competition of foreign films, the importation of which is alleged to be restricted.

Controls 80 Per Cent.

The government's petition says between 2,500,000 and 3,000,000 feet of pictures are printed each week by manufacturers and distributed to thousands of exhibitors all over the United States, involving an investment greatly in excess of $100,000,000 in the different branches of the business.

The defendants control, it is alleged, from 70 to 80 per cent of the film business, furnishing approximately 7,000 exhibitors.

Must Use Trust Films.

The Motion Picture Patents company, organized in New Jersey in September, 1908, is the holding company of all the motion picture patents of the defendants.

Not one of the thousands of exhibitors throughout the United States, it is charged, can obtain a motion picture manufactured by anyone of the ten defendant manufacturers unless he has received a license from the patents company which obligates him to use the films of the alleged combination exclusively.

Test of Corporation Rights.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The moving picture anti-trust suit just filed, is regarded by the department of justice as one of its most important moves under the Sherman law. It squarely asks for a judicial determination of the relation of that statute to the patent laws. The suit will test the right of corporations and individuals to join their respective patent monopolies into one big monopoly through combination and agreements.

AGAIN, THE "TRUSTED EMPLOYE"

Confidential Clerk of Cudahy Packing Company Arrested for Issuing Fraudulent Checks.

Chicago, Aug. 17.—A. J. Hobson, for ten years a confidential clerk of the Cudahy packing company, was arrested on a warrant sworn to by W. J. Quinn, assistant general manager of the company, charging Hobson with fraud.

Hobson was employed in the general offices, and it was part of his duties to make out vouchers for pay checks due to agents located outside of Chicago.

According to officials of the company he conspired with men outside the city to obtain checks on false vouchers.

Hobson is said to have admitted having obtained several hundred dollars, when he was seen at the South Clark street police station, where he is being held.

Busy Forger at Springfield.

Springfield, Mo., Aug. 17.—Springfield business men, within the past few days, have cashed numerous pieces of worthless paper for as much as $125. At the Frisco ticket office one bogus draft for $125 was cashed. A grocer cashed another for $50 which was refused at the bank. One drawn through a St. Louis bank was printed upon a form used by the bank of Foss, Ok., and bore the signature of J. W. Cantelon, cashier. The police are seeking a man who is said to have disposed of each piece of the worthless paper.

May Impeach Penrose.

Pittsburg, Aug. 17.—Boise Penrose, United States senator from Pennsylvania is face to face with impeachment on the charge of accepting Standard Oil money to influence legislation in congress. The charges are based on the recent publication in a magazine of a series of letters to Penrose from John D. Archbold which indicated that $25,000 was paid to Penrose.

Dynamite Trials in October.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 17.—United States Senator John W. Kern will be one of the attorneys for the 51 defendants, accused of complicity in the alleged nation-wide dynamite conspiracy. The trials are scheduled to begin in the federal court October 1.

RICH GOLD VEIN DISCOVERED

VAST ORE LEDGE EXPOSED BY CLOUDBURST.

Colorado is Excited Over Prospective Camp Which May Rival Cripple Creek.

Denver, Col. Aug. 17.—Gold deposits of vast extent, lying almost at the grass roots in a vein four feet wide the ore assaying from $700 to $2,250 a ton, were uncovered by a cloudburst in northern New Mexico, within 20 miles of the southern boundary of Colorado. Experienced mining men of the early days in Cripple Creek declare that the discovery assures the upbuilding of a mining camp as great as Cripple Creek.

Fifteen hundred men already have arrived at the new gold field and staked out ground for miles. The original discoverers endeavored to preserve secrecy concerning their finds, but were unable to do so and each train to the nearest railroad station carries an increasing number of prospectors.

The new camp lies 50 miles from Blanca Costilla county, Colorado, on La Tir peak.

The news of the gold discovery was brought to Denver by A. M. Kearns, who has land interests in Toas county and had been in that region on land business. He says:

"The gold was found by three or four Alamosa men who had gone there to fish. A few days before they went into that country there was a big cloudburst and when they reached La Tir peak they found a ledge exposed for many feet that glistened with gold. They were old mining men and took samples across a four-foot vein and the assays showed $2,250 to the ton. They have gone down 26 feet making assays as they went, and the lowest return has been $700 to the ton across the entire four-foot vein."

BOOSTS SUFFRAGE ON CHECKS

On the bottom of each was printed "Votes for Women." Before dusk the subject was discussed in all commercial centers. Later the subject went to the women of Newport and everybody was talking about the clever idea Mrs. Belmont had introduced to further the ends of the suffrage cause.

FEED PEACHES TO THEIR HOGS

Oklahoma Growers Refuse to Haul Fruit to Town at Present Prices —Crop Largest in Years.

Chickasha, Ok., Aug. 17.—Farmers and fruit growers of this section are offering fine Elberta peaches at 15 cents a bushel. The crop is just now ripening and no market can be found for them.

A number of farmers are feeding the peaches to their hogs rather than haul them to town at the low price they are bringing. The peach crop will be the largest in years.

Oklahoma "Taxi" Robbery.

Tulsa, Ok., Aug. 17.—A. C. Scott and W. F. Gaylor, traveling salesmen, who gave Kansas City as their home, were the victims of a taxicab holdup just east of town. The highwaymen got only $25, as the two men had most of their money hidden under the driver's seat. They were assaulted when they resisted the robbers. Two arrests have been made.

Bad Beef Was Fatal.

Rocky Ford, Col., Aug. 17.—Mrs. Latsky, wife of Rev. A. Latsky, of the German Lutheran church, and her nine-year-old daughter, are dead and Rev. Mr. Latsky and a 12-year-old son are dying of ptomaine poisoning caused by eating soup made from infected beef.

ARMY BILL BACK FOR CONFERENCE

Appropriation Measure, Important to Soldiers, Again Delayed.

SENATE SUSTAINS TAFT VETOES

Motion to Override President on Metal Bill Fails to Get Necessary Majority—Vote Was 32 to 38.

Washington, Aug. 17.—The army appropriation bill so anxiously watched by the soldiers of the entire country and which has passed the house twice after such a bitter fight was waged, was sent once more to conference by the house. The managers for the house, appointed by Speaker Clark were Representatives Hay, Slayden and Fornes.

The chief differences between the two branches of congress are the provisions abolishing a large number of army posts, the reduction of the cavalry force of the army and the extension of the term of enlistment from three to five years.

Fur Treaty Goes Same Way.

The bill putting into effect the international treaty with regard to the preservation of the fur seals, also was sent to conference. Representative Sulzer of New York, Democrat, moved a disagreement to all of the senate amendments and Speaker Clark named him, Representatives Flood and McKinley as the house conferees.

Senate Upholds President.

The senate voted to sustain vetoes of the president on the wool and metal tariff revision bills. On the metal bill the motion to override the president did not even obtain a majority. Or neither measure did the vote approach the necessary two-thirds.

Senator Simmons called up the metal bill, which was first disposed of. Without a debate a roll call vote was taken and 32 senators voted in favor of overriding the veto. Thirty eight voted against passage.

Fight Over Wool Bill.

Senator La Follette made the motion to repass the wool bill. He asserted that the bill was a protective tariff measure and was framed according to the tariff board's report on the wool industry. He analyzed the report of the tariff board and compared it with the bill. Senator La Follette asserted that the failure of the president to accept the "judgment of congress," was a usurpation of power.

Senator Heyburn answered Mr. La Follette, and denounced the bill as a Democratic measure. When the vote finally was taken 49 senators voted in favor of passing the bill and 36 against it. The following Republicans voted with the Democrats to override the wool veto: Senators Bristow, Clapp, Crawford, La Follette, Poindexter and Works.

WANTS AID FOR KANSAS SCHOOLS

Superintendent Fairchild Starts Campaign for Passage of Page Bill.

Topeka, Aug. 17.—E. T. Fairchild, state superintendent of public instruction has started a campaign to line up the Kansas congressmen for the Page bill to give assistance to Kansas trade and agricultural schools.

The Page bill was drawn originally by the late Senator Dolliver and it provides $15,000,000 for government aid to schools. Kansas now pays $200 a year to those high schools which teach agriculture, manual training and domestic science.

The government aid would make possible an increase in the facilities for handling these subjects in the Kansas schools.

SPECIAL JUDGE FOR GAMBLERS

Governor Dix Appoints John W. Goff of Supreme Court for Rosenthal Trial.

New York, Aug. 17.—Gov. Dix appointed Justice John W. Goff of the state supreme court to hear the Rosenthal murder cases in extraordinary session beginning September 3.

Justice Goff's selection came before all of the indictments in the case have been returned—Becker alone having been indicted so far for murder—but the district attorney's staff regards the return of the other true bills as a foregone conclusion. They probably will be returned early next week after the testimony of Sam Schepps has been heard.

Increasing Business

NEARLY always merit of some kind is the cause for increasing business. We're very pleased to note the increasing business in our job department and we're sure the cause of it is merit—good printers, good material and good machinery; care in the execution of the work, promptness in the delivery of it and reasonable prices for doing it.

We're better fixed for taking care of your work than most shops—more presses, more men to do the work and the biggest stock of paper in this section of the state—no reason for having to wait for your job, and that's a big asset.

The list of our customers is growing all the time—old customers nearly always stay with us because they get satisfaction and new ones become fast friends for the same reason.

AS THE BURGLAR VIEWS IT

National Board of Control Favored by Mr. Velvet Pillowfeet, So Well and Widely Known.

Mr. Velvet Pillowfeet, the widely known burglar, returned from Europe yesterday on the Pelumphic. When asked about the business situation he said:

"There is no need for worry over the burglar business. In spite of the disturbance of recent months, underlying conditions are sound and resources are plentiful. And yet, although I am thoroughly optimistic, I want to say that no noticeable revival of burglary can be looked for at once. So long as the authorities continue their meddling, and so long as the people are willing to listen to inflammatory agitators, our soliest burglars will not undertake new commitments. The public mind has been stirred up until they think burglars are much worse than they really are. It is actually coming to the point in this country where a man who is good to his family cannot turn a dishonest penny without having to undergo annoying investigations by congress and the police and muckrakers.

"I do not deny, of course, that burglary should be regulated, nor do I object to a modicum of government control, which might even go so far as to limit the amount which a duly licensed burglar might make at any one haul, but I do think that burglary should be taken out of politics. For this purpose I favor the creation of a national burglary board, to be appointed by the president and composed of leading respectable burglars."

Fooling the Kaiser.

A long smile and a quiet chuckle are reported from Berlin consequent on a confidence game of which the emperor William II. was the victim during his recent sojourn at the Greek island of Corfu. It seems that the authorities of the island, advised of the coming of the kaiser, wished to give him an agreeable surprise. Knowing the interest he took in archaeological excavation, they decided to do some digging under his very eyes.

Hardly had he debarked when announcement was made that a number of antique statues had been uncovered. He wished at once to see them and exhibited great satisfaction when under his eyes there was exhumed a number of marbles of great beauty. He had these transported to a neighboring hall and declared that he would send them to the museum at Berlin.

It soon came out, however, that these works were apochryphal. The authorities had bought them of dealers in fake antiquities. It is said that the kaiser was furious when the fraud was made known to him. Had it happened in Germany the tricksters might be punished for lese majesty.

Miss Anna Stapler left Saturday for a two weeks' visit in Chicago with Miss Katherine Qlinlan.

Mrs. J. C. Simpson and daughter of Pickering spent Friday and Saturday in Maryville.

TARIFF HAS NOT HELPED FARMERS

Senator Gardner Gives Reason for Supporting Wilson.

NOW IS TIME FOR REWARD

Too Long Have They Been Fooled by False Gods—Rallying to Democracy's Banners.

The reasons why those engaged in agricultural pursuits should support Governor Woodrow Wilson for president are strongly set forth by Senator Obadiah Gardner of Maine in an address to farmers.

Senator Gardner is a practical farmer, one who farms his own farm, and he is probably in closer touch and sympathy with country life and its environments than any other man in public life.

For twenty-five years Senator Gardner has been actively engaged in the National Grange and for ten years he was the master of the State Grange of Maine. A few years ago he came within a close margin of being elected governor of the Pine Tree State.

A little less than a year ago, when Senator Frye, who had represented Maine in the senate for thirty years, died, Governor Plaisted honored Mr. Gardner, and recognized the agricultural interests of the country by appointing him to the United States senate, where he has made a most creditable record, devoting particular attention to the welfare of the great rural population of the country. He is now a candidate for re-election and will undoubtedly be successful.

In his address, Senator Gardner says:

To the Farmers of the United States, Greeting:

Being one of you and for the greater part of my life having been engaged in the practical every-day duties of my own farm; having been for 25 years past officially at work through boards of agriculture and the National and State Granges; having served four years as second officer of the National Grange and as master of the Maine State Grange ten years, during which time the order in Maine added 8,546 members and attained a power and influence never held before, I feel I am in a position to speak from the standpoint of one who knows the farmer and his needs, and it is solely because of this that I am prompted to address you.

For years farmers have justly complained of being required to pull at the short end of the yoke because of unfair and unjust discriminations in legislation and transportation, and at the present time the farmers are charged with being the cause of the high cost of living, when, as a matter of fact, taken collectively—the amount invested in their business, the hours devoted to hard labor, and everything connected with the details of agricultural life—they are, as a whole, the poorest paid class of people in this country, while relatively the most important.

Farmers Have Been Deceived.

During all recent years farmers have been told that a great blessing has been theirs through the so-called protective tariff, and yet to find a market for their principal crops they have had to compete in the markets of the world where the price is fixed. But suddenly it is discovered that the farmer is the sole cause for the high cost of living, and what happens? The president (Mr. Taft) with a total disregard for the interests of the farmers, submits a plan to open up to competition with the farmers of the United States the products of Canada while being careful to preserve the tariff, or more correctly speaking, the tax, on all the farmer has to buy, which, as clearly as anything can, exposes the hypocrisy and "humbuggery" of the claim that the tariff is a benefit to agricultural as compared with manufactured products.

Now, the farmers of this country have an opportunity to benefit themselves that has never appeared within my recollection, as the Democratic party has been compelled by the force of public opinion to nominate a man for the presidency who is best equipped for that high office of any that have been nominated or elected since Lincoln. A man that I speak of from a personal acquaintance with and a knowledge of his fitness; a man of great natural ability, splendidly educated, not theoretically but practically, a keenness of intellect remarkable for its grasp of every condition with which he is confronted; an indomitable courage to do right; and above all a great broad tendency with and sympathy for all classes. He will make one of the most accessible presidents ever in the White House, and through whom none will be refused a hearing, however humble, nor fail to receive justice at his hands. He is truly a marvelous man and I wish every person in the United States could know him as I know him, and supplementing all these qualities is the additional one that his home is one of perfect balance.

None can meet the splendid Mrs. Wilson and her three refined, cultured daughters with their perfect naturalness, but must feel that the whole family of Woodrow Wilson was especially prepared to fill a great need in the present crisis in the history of our country, as were Washington, Jefferson, Jackson and Lincoln, and I would advise the farmers upon my reputation as a man, if you want to protect your own interests and those of your families, if you want to render the greatest possible good to your country and future generations, if you want to contribute your part to the end that popular government under God shall not perish from the earth, then see that the Hon. Woodrow Wilson is elected president.

O. GARDNER.

THE PEOPLE AND THE CURRENCY.

In dealing with the complicated and difficult question of the reform of our banking and currency laws it is plain that we ought to consult very many persons besides the bankers, not because we distrust the bankers, but because they do not necessarily comprehend the business of the country, notwithstanding they are indispensable servants of it and may do a vast deal to make it hard or easy. No mere bankers' plan will meet the requirements, no matter how honestly conceived. It should be a merchants' and farmers' plan as well, elastic in the hands of those who use it as an indispensable part of their daily business.—From Woodrow Wilson's speech accepting the Democratic nomination.
